

"My Tuscan Adventure" now showing at the Common Ground Café

50 Brentwood Blvd, Sherwood Park
Tues-Fri 8:30 am to 10 pm
Sat. 10 am to 4pm

June 28rd to July 31st, 2014

Stop in to see my art and enjoy a coffee and home baked muffins, sweets or soup.

I fell in love with the rolling countryside with olive groves and vineyards, and the walled medieval villages on the highest hills and of course the people. Around every turn was another captivating scene.

By using texture to emphasize the ancient stone work and by focusing on the soft bright sunlight and dark shadows typical of the narrow cobblestone streets, I have tried to capture not only the essence of Italy but specifically the colour and character Tuscany is renowned for.

To view these paintings and others view www.elainetweedy.com